

Project Profile:

National Interagency Fire Center

18,061 Sq. Ft. Single-Story Office Building

Located in Boise, ID

DETAILS:

This building was built as a sustainable and high performance office for the Bureau of Land Management National Interagency Fire Center.

TIME TO COMPLETE:

72 days from delivery to occupancy.

SPECIAL FEATURES:

The building layout uses a central double-loaded corridor design serving seven different secure department suites branching to each side of the corridor. Each suite utilizes an open floor plan designed with the manager's offices, secure records, and conference areas in dedicated interior located rooms.

- 7 Suites
- 7 HVAC systems
- 17 offices
- 6 file/records rooms
- 6 conference rooms
- 6 storage/custodian rooms
- 2 break rooms
- Restrooms

